

Tea with the Queen

The Queen's head cookie cutters.

Afternoon Tea is a great British tradition, and what could be better than “tea with the Queen”. Enjoying a nice cup of tea and a cookie with Her Royal Highness Queen Elizabeth is unlikely for most of us, until now... Bake posh cookies with the silhouette of Her Majesty. The iconic Queen’s profile is a symbol of royalty and Britannia, and is perfect for dunking. God Save The Queen. A right royal gift for any Anglophile.
