

Cork Tape Dispenser

Tape Dispenser made entirely from cork.

We love cork so much we just wanted an excuse to keep a big chunk of it on our desks. And so the Cork Cube Tape Dispenser was born. Large, geometric, angular, sculptural, holds your sticky tape and perfect for pinning stuff to. A giant tape dispenser and a tiny memo board. But why cork? Well, apart from being extremely beautiful, cork is 100% natural, recyclable, biodegradable, sustainable and completely environmentally friendly. And although we have used a great big piece of a tree, growing more cork is good for the planet. So what we have here is a tactile gift for tree huggers who appreciate clean geometry.
