

Dinosaur Bottle Opener

For roarsome refreshment

- Cast iron T-Rex for biting off bottle caps
 - Heavy and hard-wearing
- Measures 26cm(W) x 12cm(H) x 6cm(D)

Back from extinction, this cast-iron Tyrannosaurus Rex bites off bottle tops with ease. Like no other bottle opener, this monstrous utensil will be the centre piece of any home bar or the talking point of any party. Why use a boring opener when you could have a giant dinosaur on your kitchen top ready to prise caps off with its cast-iron teeth? This T-Rex tears the Triceratops off your drinks! The perfect gift for thirsty dinosaur lovers.
