

Game On Backgammon

Iron & Glory Magnetic Travel Backgammon.

- Metal case is the board.
- Pieces stick magnetically.
- Black fabric carry pouch.
- Ideal design for travel.

Portable magnetic backgammon set packed in a compact tin that doubles as the board. Magnetic pieces stay firmly in place during play, while a soft velvet pouch keeps everything neatly stored. Perfectly sized for travel, it's a stylish way to take your favourite game wherever you go — because even on the move, the game never stops. Classic strategy meets sleek design. Game on, anytime, anywhere.

It's true, traditionally backgammon is associated with the dark corners of old-school boozers, but 1) you should never mock a person who's been told they're a Grand Master of anything, and 2) we're not here to judge anyone for their choice of sporting attire. Backgammon is a workout for the brain, a fun pastime, and a cool way to show off to people who only play chess. Our magnetic backgammon pieces come in a velvet pouch, and the tin is the board, so no need to take up valuable space in your bag. Get your game on.
