Cork Cactus

Prickly desktop organiser.

- Cactus shaped cork pinboard
- Supplied with push-pins to replicate spikes and flowers
- Removable top - store small items inside
- Made from sustainable, solid cork

Everyone’s favourite, slow growing, spiky pot-plant is happy with very little water. But Cork Cactus requires NO water or maintenance at all. Even better, you can pin stuff to it and keep knick-knacks and tiny desk clutter in the terracotta pot. Supplied with a handful of push-pins that brilliantly replicate spikes and tiny flowers of desert cacti. A thoughtful gift for anyone who yearns for a pot-plant but works in a dry, repressive office with no windows or natural light.
