

No Pressure Coffee Dripper

Espresso is over, drip coffee rules.

There is a coffee revolution going on. Espresso is so over. All that steam and pressure burns your artisan coffee grounds... Anyone who knows anything knows that drip coffee preserves the taste and aroma of the bean far better than an aggressive espresso machine. In a cheeky nostalgic nod to tradition, we have styled our one-cup dripper like the redundant Italian stove-top classic. A great gift for coffee quaffing hipsters. Use standard size 4 filter papers. Drop by drop, no pressure.
