

Plant Pot Hideaway

Keep your stuff safe and organised.

- .2 Part ceramic pot with hidden compartment.
- Can be used as a key safe or cash box.
- Suitable for indoor and outdoor use.

A two-part ceramic plant pot with a hidden compartment. This cleverly designed hideaway provides the perfect secret spot for your valuables. It also acts as a great desk or home tidy, so you can keep all the small stuff organised and out of sight. Whether it's loose change, house keys, herb-cutting scissors or stationery, this hideaway makes for a unique and attractive storage solution.

Plant Pot Hideaway

An idea by Nick Forrester
made by Suck UK

Nick (aka Fozz) is Staffordshire born and raised but now lives and works here in London. He is obsessed with design in all forms and regularly attends exhibitions, galleries, and trade shows for fun, with his yearly highlight being Dutch Design Week. From finishing University with a First in Product Design, he now works for us at Suck UK as a Product Developer, but still submits his ideas with the hope of getting them produced. Some of Nick's designs include; UFO Storage Jar, Send a Sound, TV Lunch Box, and My Gardening Handbook which was inspired from his experience in Horticulture and Arboriculture. Gaining knowledge and inspiration from anything and everything, who knows what he'll come up with next.
