LET'S DRINK TO THAT
THE ULTIMATE EVERY OCCASION DRINKING GAME
@LETSDRINKTOTHATGAME

LET'S GET TO KNOW EACH OTHER

We're Yas & Rena! Two twenty something year olds with a passion for travel, tequila and games! Back in 2020 - mid Covid, when borders reopened, we backpacked across Europe and played drinking games with new friends from all around the world. Yep, after months of being locked down, we were finally out socialising again. However, we very quickly realised that there weren't any card games out there that were universally relevant for our own age group that could be played without skipping out the boring cards...

Then we had it, an 'AHA' moment! To make our own drinking card game that could be played at home (lockdowns, rainy days, friends over for drinks) and would also be compact enough to take to a bar or to fit in our travel bags. 'Let's Drink To That' was born.
